9. Coordinated Directions 1-step (and, then, or)

Work through the following directions. If the student is carrying out the instructions without error, introduce a 5 second delay to increase the difficulty of the activity. The student may use each word only once. Begin the activity telling the student they need to give you items that belong to the chosen groups.

🐝 Tell me a boy's name and a girl's name.

🐝 Tell me a colour or a number.

🐝 Tell me a letter, then a number.

🐝 Tell me a food, then a toy or drink.

🐝 Tell me a drink or a toy.

🐝 Tell me a piece of furniture and a body part.

🐝 Name a food and an animal.

🐝 Name a drink, then a food.

🐝 Name a colour or a toy.

🐝 Name a body part, then a piece of furniture.

🐝 Name a girl's name and a number.

🐝 Name a boy's name or a letter.

🐝 Whisper a body part and a colour.

🐝 Whisper a number or a letter.

🐝 Whisper an animal, then a food.

🐝 Whisper a drink or a toy.

🐝 Whisper a piece of furniture, then a girl's name.
 Congratulations if you didn't use the same word more than once!

2. Conditional Drawing Step (Negative)

Another activity to develop an understanding of identifying items by exclusion is to instruct the students to draw the shapes as outlined in the box below. If the student has difficulty understanding “but don’t”, shake your head as you say it.

- 🚲 Draw a circle but don't draw a square.
- 🚲 Don't draw a triangle but draw a star.
- 🚲 Draw a square but don't draw a circle.
- 🚲 Don't draw a star but draw a triangle.
- 🚲 Draw a face but don't draw the nose.

- 🚲 Draw a little circle but don't draw a big circle.
- 🚲 Don't draw a big square but draw a little square.
- 🚲 Draw a big triangle but don't draw a little triangle.

13. Conditional Responses (Negatives) “Neither/Nor”

In this activity the student will further develop their understanding of identifying items by exclusion. If the student has difficulty with drawing a circle around the items they can point to them or place a token on it.

14. Conditional Directions 1-step (when)

This activity aims to develop the student's ability to follow a direction under a condition. The student should be instructed to wait until the direction is completed before they start. It may be helpful to point to yourself as you say "When I.." and point to the student as you say "You..". As the activity progresses the student will have to listen and watch carefully so they only complete their action when they see the correct action completed.

- a. When I wave my hand, you point to your nose.
- b. When I close my eyes, you poke out your tongue.
- c. When I put up my hand, you kick your foot.
- d. When I click my fingers, you clap your hands.
- e. When I point to my ribs, you touch your elbow.
- f. When I close my teeth, you open your mouth.
- g. When I put my hands together, you put yours up in the air.
- h. When I put my head down, you shake your shoulders.
- i. When I scratch my head, you put your hands on your head.
- j. When I rub my eyes, you pretend to draw.
- k. When I touch my ear, you put your hands on your head. (Instructor to point to nose first, WAIT, then ear)
- l. When I smile, you lift up your knee. (frown, WAIT, smile)

- m. When I lick my lips, you put your hands in your lap. (lips together, WAIT, lick lips.)
- n. When I rub my eyes, you wiggle your fingers. (touch eyes, WAIT, wiggles)
- o. When I put my hands out to the side, you move both thumbs. (hands up, WAIT, hands out to the side)

16. Conditional Directions 1-step

(do not pass)

The student will observe and listen closely, to follow these conditional directions. The objective is to develop an understanding of following a direction with a rule or 'condition'. The following page is to be copied and used to carry out the instructions below. Give the student specific feedback along the way. For example, "Great, you waited to see if I did my part first!".

Instruct the student, "We are going to draw a person together. Listen carefully to each instruction".

-  Don't draw a little circle for the head, unless I draw a big circle for the body.
-  Don't draw an arm, unless I draw a leg.
-  Don't draw two eyes, unless I draw another arm.

- ✂ Don't draw the hands, unless I draw a nose.
